duty at the adjutant general's office, is with Mrs. Tracey located for the season at 1801 K street.

Maj. Stephen H. Elliott, U. S. A., and wife, recently from Fort Meade, S. D., have come to Washington and taken an apartment for the winter at the Netherlands.

Maj. William J. Lyster, U. S. A., and Mrs. Lyster are at 1913 S street for the season. Maj. Lyster is at present on duty in the office of the surgeon general, War Department.

Lieut. Francis Ruggles, U. S. A., and wife have returned from Manila and are at present in Washington, where they are being warmly welcomed back by their friends. Lieut. Ruggles is a son of the late Gen. Ruggles.

Brig. Gen. Henry A. Greene, commandant of Army Service Schools at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and Mrs. Greene are entertaining at their guest at that post Miss Cora Milward of Washington, to whose honor numerous dinner parties have been given.

Capt. Charles McHenry Steese, U. S. A., and wife, after a honeymoon motor tour through the Adirondacks, are visiting Capt. James G. Steese at West Point.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Piel, whose marriage took place recently in Washington, are being entertained at the Presidio, San Francisco, before sailing for Honolulu, where Lieut. Piel is on duty at the Schofield barracks.

Maj. John S. Winn, U. S. A., having been assigned to duty as assistant to the department inspector, will be joined here by Mrs. Winn, who, with Miss Katherine Winn and Stanley Winn, has spent the summer at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., with Lieut. and Mrs. Francis R.

Patch-Littell.

The marriage of Miss Julia Littell and Lieut. Alexander M. Patch, United States infantry, last night, was one of the most brilliant events of the auto-umn. St. Margaret's Church, where the ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, was decorated with a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums mingled with palms and ferns, white blossoms only being used about the altar. Col. Isaac W.
Littell, U. S. A., escorted his daughter to the altar, and gave her away. They were preceded by the flower girl, little Miss Jane Taintor of Trenton, N. J., who wore white organdy over yellow, made after the fashion of her grandmother's day, and tied with a sash of infantry blue. She carried sweetheart roses with which to strew the church aisle. The two maids of honor were the twin sisters of the bride, Miss Mary Littell and Miss Ruth Lit-tell, and their gowns were of blue liberty satin, draped with quite full tunics of yellow tulle, and bodices of gold lace. Following them were the bridesmaids, Miss Gladys Booth of Port Sheridan, Miss Beatrice Moses, Brooklyn navy yard; Miss Margaret Hastings and Miss Dorothy Wrecks of Elizabeth, N. J.; Miss Dorothy Mills of Governors Island, Miss Emily Chase of Washington and Miss Harriet James of Danville, Va., all of whom wore gowns of blue satin, trimmed with blue tulle, and carried yellow roses.

The bride's gown was of soft white satin, with draperies of tulle caught with sprays of orange blossoms, and the entire bodice was fashioned of tulle and rose point lace. The long tulle veil was worn with a cap of rose point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses.

Mr. Barrett Littell, brother of the bride, was best man for Lisa Patch, and the ushers were Lieut. A. V.
Arnold, Lieut. P. E. Uhl, Lieut. James Cheney, Lieut. H. H. Smith, Lieut. H.
H. Smith, White House aide; Lieut. H. R.
Harmon, Lieut. Joseph Treat, Lieut.
Karl Bradford and Lieut. Oliver. The Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith officiated.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Washington Club, where the bride and bridegroom received with Col. and Mrs. Littell. The drawing rooms of the club were also decorated in yellow and white blossoms.

Mrs. Patch wore for a traveling gown, when she and Lieut. Patch left Washington last night for their short honeymoon trip, a modish gown of brown cloth trimmed with beaver, and a hat of the same shade with bands of fur and gold lace. Lieut. Patch is stationed at Fort Douglas, Ariz., and their wedding journey will be taken in that direction.

The out-of-town guests present included Mr. William Moore Patch and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bickell of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Ralston, Mr. William E. Ralston, Mr. John
